

The Evening Gatha

Let me respectfully remind you,
Life and death are of supreme importance.
Time passes swiftly by,
and with it our only chance.
Let us attend to the teaching of each moment...each moment
And not squander our lives.

The dharma gate is open wide.
The great way lies beneath our feet, extending freely in every direction.
Let us enjoy our lives together.